

Should you have purchased a ticket with Latam Airways, you can postpone your departure date without incurring any change fees. You can book your new ticket with Latam during the next 12 months after the purchase date of your original flight and fly up to 12 months after the departure of your original flight. You are able to change the itinerary in your new booking, though you will be required to pay the difference. You will not pay the fare difference only if your flight was cancelled and you book your new ticket in the same itinerary and cabin class.
